- 22.5 An Employee may also initiate a grievance under this Clause. Grievances shall be treated seriously and will be handled in strictest confidence and with dignity.

ARTICLE 23 – Grievance Procedure

From time to time, disputes arise between Employees and the Employer, which do not involve the interpretation of the Collective Agreement. Nonetheless, it is recognized that it is in the best interests of all concerned that these disputes be resolved quickly and efficiently through the grievance process to prevent unhealthy tensions from growing within the School Division.

Any difference between any Employee covered by this Collective Agreement and the Employer, or between the Union and the Employer concerning the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement, and further including any dispute as to whether the difference is arbitrable, shall be defined as a grievance and shall be dealt with in the process outlined in Article 23, without stoppage of work or refusal to perform work.

23.1 Informal Dispute Resolution within ten (10) working days:

- (a) An Employee who believes that they have a problem arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement shall first discuss the matter with their appropriate Employer representative (Principal, Vice Principal, Associate Superintendent, Director, Coordinator, or Human Resources) within ten (10) working days of the date they first became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence.
- (b) The Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a Local Union Officer while discussing the matter with their appropriate Employer representative or Human Resources/Designate.
- (c) A sincere attempt shall be made by both Parties through discussion to resolve the problem at this level within ten (10) working days.
- (d) The Employee may request the Employer to provide their decision in writing within ten (10) working days of 23.1 (c).

23.2 STEP 1 – Written Grievance:

- (a) If the dispute has not been resolved through informal discussion with the Employee's appropriate Employer representative, such difference (hereafter called a grievance) shall be submitted in writing by the Union to the Associate Superintendent of Business and Operations and Director of Human Resources or their designate within ten (10) working days of Clause 23.1 (d).
- (b) Such grievance shall set out the nature of the grievance, and the Articles of this Collective Agreement or any legislation which it is alleged have been violated.
- (c) The Parties shall meet at Step 1 for the purpose of resolving the grievance within ten (10) working days from the date the grievance was submitted (or as agreed to by the Parties).
- (d) Unless mutually agreed otherwise, the Parties shall have not more than three (3) representatives plus the grievor(s) to participate in the grievance process.

- (e) The Parties agree to share information relevant to the dispute with one another on a “without prejudice” basis and to engage in meaningful discussion. The representatives of the Parties at the meeting shall have the authority to resolve the grievance. The Employer or the Union shall communicate its decision, in writing within ten (10) working days of the meeting.
- (f) If a resolution is achieved at or following the Step 1 meeting, the agreement shall be confirmed in writing by the Parties.
- (g) If a resolution is not achieved at or following the Step 1 meeting, the grievance may be advanced to Mediation or Arbitration within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Step 1 decision.

During the proceedings, the Parties shall fully disclose to the mediator all materials and information relevant to the issue(s) in dispute.

- (b) The purpose of the mediator’s involvement in the grievance process is to assist the Parties in reaching a resolution of the dispute, and anything said, proposed, generated, or prepared for the purpose of trying to achieve a settlement is to be considered privileged and without prejudice, and shall not be used for any other purpose.
- (c) The grievance may be resolved by mutual agreement between the Parties. The Parties may request that the mediator issue a report including non-binding recommendations.
- (d) Where the Parties have mutually agreed to participate in Mediation, the applicable timeline shall be extended to accommodate the mediation process.
- (e) The expenses of the mediator shall be borne equally by both Parties.

23.4 Arbitration:

- (a) If the Parties are unable to reach a settlement at Step 1 or at Mediation, either party may refer the grievance to Arbitration.

- (c) Each party may submit up to three (3) names of Arbitrators to the other party within ten (10) working days.

If agreement does not occur to determine an Arbitrator, the Parties shall apply to the Director of Mediation Services who will appoint an Arbitrator.

- (e) The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties.
- (f) The Arbitration decision shall be governed by the terms of this Collective Agreement and shall not alter, amend or change the terms of this Collective Agreement; however, where an Arbitrator, by way of an award, determines that an Employee has been discharged or otherwise disciplined by an Employer for cause and the Collective Agreement does not contain a specific penalty for the infraction that is the subject matter of the Arbitration, the Arbitrator may substitute any penalty for the discharge or discipline that to the Arbitrator seems just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- (g) Where an Arbitrator, by way of an award, determines that the Collective Agreement has been violated, the Arbitrator may issue a declaration that the Collective Agreement has been violated and may order the affected party to comply with the Collective Agreement, even if this remedy was not specifically sought in the grievance. An Arbitrator may order compensation if appropriate.
- (h) The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union.

23.5 Group Grievance:

In the event that the difference affects two (2) or more Employees, the grievance may be grouped or dealt with as a single grievance commencing at Step 1.

23.6 Policy Grievance:

Where a dispute involving the general application or interpretation occurs the Union may initiate a policy grievance which will begin at Step 1.

Where a dispute involves the Termination of the Employee, the Union may initiate a grievance at Step 1.

23.8 Timelines:

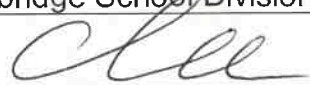

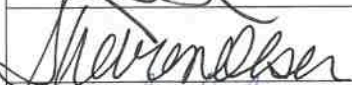

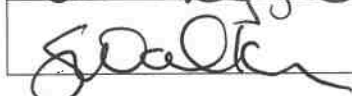

Timelines within this grievance procedure may be extended through the agreement of both Parties. Working days referenced in this Article shall not include weekends or General Holidays.

Letter of Understanding No. 3 – Jordan’s Principle Funding

BETWEEN
LETHBRIDGE SCHOOL DIVISION

- AND -

RE: Jordan’s Principle Funding

Rationale:

Special initiative funding can be tied specifically to students and student attendance, therefore Employees in these contracts will not have their assignment/contract count towards gaining seniority. An example of this is Jordan’s Principle.

Jordan's Principle makes sure all First Nations children living in Canada can access the products, services and support they need when they need them. Funding can help with a wide range of health, social and educational needs, including the unique needs that First Nations Two-Spirit and LGBTQQIA children and youth and those with disabilities may have. Jordan's Principle is named in memory of Jordan River Anderson, a young boy from Norway House Cree Nation in Manitoba.

The Division may receive Jordan’s Principle funding which is tied specifically to a student and the student’s attendance.

Temporary Educational Assistants and Advanced Educational Support Employees who are hired into positions funded by Jordan’s Principle shall not gain seniority.

Permanent Educational Assistants and Advanced Educational Support Employees will not be eligible to transfer into positions funded by Jordan’s Principle unless the Employee chooses to forfeit their permanent position.

The posting of positions funded by Jordan’s Principle shall not be required.

RE: Gaining Seniority During the COVID-19 Pandemic

During the 2019/2020 school year, Educational Assistants under a temporary assignment ending June 25, 2020, were released from their contracts on April 15, 2020, as a result of the re-allocation of government funding due to the COVID-19 pandemic, resulting in a break in consecutive years of service.
